The Gospel According to Isaiah – Part 8

- In chapter 40, the theme changes from _____ to _____.
- Isaiah knew that, following the destruction of Israel, the Israelite people would be in a state of utter _____.

Two Applications

- This chapter should be read with 2 possible applications in mind:
 1. _____ -- the modern church needs to prepare itself for _____ similar to those faced by ancient Israel.
 2. _____ -- sooner or later, you are likely to find yourself in personal circumstances that threaten to _____ you.

Declaration #1

- God wants His people to know, especially when we find ourselves under siege, that no matter how things might appear, He has not _____ us and He most assuredly will _____ us.
- There is a _____ that God is traveling on to get to us.

Declaration #2

- God wants His people to know, especially when we find ourselves under siege, that He not only has the _____ but also the _____ to deliver us.
- The Israelites believed Yahweh may have had good intentions, but was no match for _____ god. It was condescension on Yahweh's part to _____ Israel that He was fully capable of delivering them.

- Intellectually, we know God is _____ - _____, and yet we're prone to _____ God's power when life goes south.
- Chapter 40 reminds us that _____ is too _____ for God.

Directive

- God promises to infuse His people with so much _____ & _____ that we'll feel as though we can _____ forever or fly through the air like an _____.
- These are metaphors to describe an _____ transformation & renewing of our _____.
- This is conditional on our _____ in the LORD.
- In the Bible, the word "hope" has a much _____ meaning than how commonly used.
- "Hope" means having such _____ & _____ in either a particular outcome or person that it enables you to _____ for that outcome or person _____ & _____.
- God can fix our problems in an _____, but He's about building a _____ characterized by quiet trust.

Core Connect This Wednesday

In Core Connect this semester, we are studying the core doctrines of the Christian faith in a systematic fashion. This week, we will learn the 2 major frameworks for understanding the Bible in its entirety. These 2 frameworks are Covenant Theology & Dispensationalism.
