From Law to Gospel

Hebrews Series – Part 4

Introduction

- In chapter 4, the writer of Hebrews eases up on the _____ and shifts from _____ to _____.
 - From what _____ must do -- to what _____ has done for us.
 - What God has done for us is provide a powerful _____ for our remaining steadfast in the faith.

The Resource

- Jesus is our great _____. (Note: The only _____ since the time of Christ is _____ -- see I Timothy 2:5)
- About the high priest:
 1. _____ was the 1st.
 2. He oversaw all the _____ activities of the Jewish people.
 3. Once a year, he entered the _____ of _____ to make atonement for sin.
 4. The office of high priest was _____ until Christ. God destroyed the temple & ended the priesthood in _____ AD.
- Concerning Christ:
 1. He went through the _____. This indicates Jesus' _____ over all previous high priests.
 2. He is Jesus the Son of _____. Thus our resource is both _____ & _____.
 3. He is able to _____ with us in our weaknesses & struggles.
- 2 cautions:
 1. Don't discount Jesus' _____ of difficulties & temptations. His divinity actually intensified the effect.
 2. Don't discount the _____ of sympathy, especially the power to _____.

The Result

- 3 observations:
 1. Jesus' work on the cross transformed the throne of God from one of severe _____ to incredible _____.
 2. Persons who are in Christ have unlimited _____ to the throne of grace.
 3. God responds to our need (however expressed) with _____ & _____.
 - a. Mercy is NOT getting the _____ thing you deserve.
 - b. Grace is getting the _____ thing you don't deserve.

Bottom Line

- Endurance & steadfastness in your commitment to Christ finds its basis in relating to him as your great _____.

Special Business Meeting This Wednesday

Wednesday, May 16
6:30 PM
Fellowship Hall

All members & attendees are encouraged to participate. The Diaconate will present 3 recommendations that directly relate to our vision as a church. We will also install new members & receive an update on the elevator & water seepage projects.
