

The Crowd & the Crew

Gospel of Mark Series – Part 10

Scripture text – Mark 3:7-18

Introduction

- In chapter 3, instead of moving from story-to-story, Mark records Jesus moving from _____-to-_____. He's very busy, interacting with lots of people.
- What's interesting are the different _____ he generates.
- What Mark wants us to determine which response most approximates _____.
- In this message, we'll compare the response of the _____ to the response of the _____.

The Crowd

- The crowd was attracted to Jesus by what he was _____, not by his _____ . They didn't much care for his message of _____.
- Their response was that of mere _____, not _____.
- 3 differences between fans & followers (Kyle Idleman):
 1. A fan _____; a follower _____.
 2. A fan knows _____ Jesus; a follower _____ him.
 3. For a fan, Jesus is one of _____; for a follower, he is your one & _____.
- Application: Which are you – a fan or a follower?

The Crew

- 2 observations:
 1. That he choose 12 has _____ significance. By doing so, he was creating a _____ Israel.
 2. Their appointment was to be _____ him and then to be _____.
- Our appointment is the _____. However, there is a great irony: While the virus is global, the _____ is not.

1. The world is comprised of _____ people groups.
2. _____ are unreached.

Following Jesus

- Following Jesus means:
 1. You _____ your life as you know it.
 2. You _____ yourself in him.
 3. You live with urgent obedience to his _____.
- Jesus deserves far more than our _____ and casual religious participation. He is worthy of our supreme _____ and the total _____ of everything in order to _____ him.
